

ANTONIO ACOSTA ACOSTA

Secretary

Antonio Acosta Acosta, born on the island of La Palma, Canarias, affiliated to ONCE since 1985. He began his career as a sales agent until 1991, when he took on the responsibility of managing ONCE on the island.

Until 2000, he combined this task with that of Territorial Advisor of the ONCE in the Canary Islands.

In the year 2000 he faced a change of responsibilities, moving to the island of Tenerife where he developed his activity as Head of Sales for the Province.

He had another experience in 2007 when he became head of the Social Services Department, a situation that lasted until 2015, when he took early retirement.

He is currently a member of the Territorial Council of ONCE in the Canary Islands and since February 2007 he has been responsible for chairing the Association of Deafblind People in the Canary Islands.

Since November 2020 he has held the position of secretary of FASOCIDE, which he still holds at present.
